Introduction of Randy Cox – Guest Soloist from Chicago

Standing on the PromisesDouglas Court
Using a flugel horn and a trumpet, this solo is based on a Latin design to produce a contemporary arrangement featuring the gospel song of the same name.

When we all get to HeavenSteven Himes
Steve Himes directs his own arrangement of this gospel song.

Adagio from Concerto de Aranjeuz.....arr. Kevin Bolton
A flugel horn solo based on the second movement of the famous Joaquin Rodrigo guitar concerto.

Jesus Loves You.....Band Vocal.....Buryl Red
Dave Bell – leader; Gill Morton – vocal soloist;
Dawn Devins – piano; Andrew Bell – euphonium soloist

Offering for World ServicesHank Heidel, Band Secretary

Offertory.....Dawn Devins

Sweet By and ByLeonard Ballantine
This solo depicts a newly departed saint sharing stories with his former companions as he joins them in Heaven. An arrangement that seeks to portray not only the sweet fellowship of that reunion, but also the awesome majesty of heaven.

Great and GloriousGeorge Marshall
Published in 1934, this classic selection was developed by the writer after a visit to the top of Grampian Mountain one Easter Sunday morning. So forceful was the inspiration of that scene on George Marshall that he quickly penned this composition containing his masterful harmonic structure.

Montreal Citadel.....March.....Norman Audoire
Another classic composition from 1934 based on the song, Calvary's Stream is flowing – the first line invites us to "Come, with me visit Calvary where our Redeemer died".

Final Thoughts & Closing Prayer
Major Norman Marshall, Divisional Commander

A Gaelic BlessingJohn Hallett, arr. Joseph Turrin
Instrumental Benediction:
*"May the roads rise with you,
And the winds be always at your back;
And may the Lord hold you,
In the hollow of His hand, In the hollow of His hand."*

Thank You
