

CELEBRATING SERVICE BY THE SALVATION ARMY
IN 111 COUNTRIES OF THE WORLD

"Let the cornets and trumpets shout!

Make a joyful symphony before the Lord" Psalm 98:6

In Good Company.....Prelude .....Dudley Bright

This composition reflects the passion of The Salvation Army in fulfilling a vision given by God to serve mankind throughout the world. Based on a 16th century song and contrasting contemporary song "Lord, I lift your name on high".

Welcome & Prayer.....Major Norman Marshall, Divisional Commander

Ad Optimum.....Peter Graham

This music was composed to honor the Star Lake Music Camp in Eastern USA – this is our salute to thousands of various types of camps held throughout the world by The Salvation Army.

Brillante.....Euphonium Duet.....Peter Graham

This fast paced composition is based on "Rule Britannia" and honors the home of The Salvation Army and of our International Headquarters in London, England.

Andrew Bell and Matthew Rowland are the soloists

Based on the song, "He is the Lord" – this arrangement salutes all The volunteers and Salvation Army Officers serving in Spanish speaking countries.

Saints on Parade (FCB) .....Kevin Norbury

On March 10, 1880, Commissioner George Scott Raiton and seven women officers arrive by ship in New York City – they knelt in prayer at Battery Park to give thanks and claimed America for The Salvation Army. Three years later their operation was expanded into California, Connecticut, Indiana, Kentucky, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Missouri, New Jersey, Ohio, and Pennsylvania.

We salute the pioneers that met the challenges of those early years and the volunteers and Officers that continue to do so in 2007.
